FAFSA UPDATE

ED Suspends Financial Verification for Remainder of 2021-22 Academic Year

The Department of Education announced that it will make temporary changes for the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) verification process to provide relief to students for the 2021-22 award year, which is the remainder of the current FAFSA cycle.

Verification— an audit-like process requiring students to provide additional documentation to prove the accuracy of information on their FAFSA – will now focus solely on identify theft and fraud (V4 and V5 categories). This eliminates financial verification (V1 category), which requires students to validate income and tax information.
