

Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University
Freedom of Speech Annual Report
August 1, 2022 – July 31, 2023

1. The date and description of each violation of the policy adopted pursuant to this act.

The Board of Trustees of Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University is pleased to report that it has no violations of its freedom of speech policy during the referenced time frame. The University is committed to principles of freedom of expression and the free exchange of ideas and dissemination of knowledge on our campus.

2. A description of the administrative handling and discipline relating to each violation described.

There were no violations of the policy, and therefore no administrative proceedings concerning any violations.

3. A description of substantial difficulties, controversies, or successes in maintaining a posture of administrative and institutional neutrality.

The University community continues to welcome and encourage free expression on our campus. We have not encountered any substantial difficulties or controversies in this regard. The University has conducted numerous events on campus without incident related to our freedom of speech policy.

4. Any assessments, criticism, commendations, or recommendations the Board of Trustees sees fit to include.

The Board of Trustees has no recommendations concerning the State's requirement at this time.
